John Daniel "Danny" Deese

FEB 3, 1948 - NOV 8, 2019

John Daniel "Danny" Deese, age 71 of Anniston, Alabama, peacefully entered the Lord's kingdom on November 8, 2019 after a long journey home. Holding his wife, and in the comfort of his bed, he joined his Heavenly Father and along with loved ones whom preceded him in death including his parents G.L. and Bessie Deese, siblings Joyce Owen, Donald Deese and Ed Kennedy. He is survived by his thoughtful caregiver and loving wife Cheryl Anne Deese, daughter Wendy Pope, step-son Jay Jay Williams, grandson Rylee Pope, siblings Leon Kennedy and Jane Chelsea and his four fur babies (Ziggy, Bella, Leo and Marley). Danny was a graduate of Walter Wellborn High school and Jacksonville State University. He proudly protected his country with a life time of service at the Anniston Army Depot. He enjoyed spending time at home being stubborn, cutting up and pestering those he loved the most. His kind and open heart was fixated on his fur babies; which were a constant source of pure joy! Quick witted, and always a practical joker; many were leery of being the brunt of his Don Rickles humor. To be in Danny's presence, was to be filled with laughter. Family and friends will celebrate his life, at the Classic on Noble Sunday November, 17 from 2:30-4:30. In lieu of flowers, and in support of our four-legged friends; honor Danny by making a donation to the Calhoun County League of Animal Welfare located at 2726 Bynum Leatherwood Road, Anniston Alabama 36201 May peace be with you.
