I remember when you were born, you were so beautiful. And as you grew, so did your beautiful heart. You were so smart!! We thought that it was because you were always surrounded by older people. You were the baby after all!! I know you forgave me for trying to boss you around, I was 18 or 19, you were 9 or 10. You wanted me to help you lose weight before school started, and I wanted to because I didn't want anybody to make fun of you... Well, you got mad at me and told on me. I was angry with you baby brother!! But we reconnected, thank You, my precious Lord. And you forgave me and I you! And it was on!! We made plans But I think my point is that you forgave me. Just like you forgave anyone who ever hurt you. You were a beautiful, loving , incredible man Keith . And we will see each other again, I know that for sure. Until that time baby brother, I will miss you and love you. Rest in Peace.

Baby brother I miss you so much. I just kept thinking that once you were able to have your hip surgery that things would get better for you, but GOD had something else in store for you. I thank GOD for allowing me to be your sister. Thank you for all the good memories I will always cherish. You will always be in my heart.

Keith was probably the kindest, most caring individual I have ever met. I am so thankful we got to reconnect over the past year. I wish we had longer to be friends, but that wasn't a part of God's plan. I will carry our talks, his advice and encouragement thru the rest of my days. Rest in Peace friend!
