I had the opportunity to be mr.roberts caregiver for the last 8 months and believe me it was a never a dull moment. I've been blessed to have alot of patients but never one with a more zest for life. My brother was a good friend of mr.roberts and that's how we began our relationship. I believe my best moment with him was the day before he went to Erin's. When he woke up that morning he shared with me that he had prayed all night and ask God to forgive him of his sins. I told him that was wonderful and he ask me what heaven was like and I of course explained as how it is in the bible. When I told him we were suppose to get brand new bodies he said good cause I've always been ugly and I replied well I have always been fat,so look at it like this I will be slim and you'll be good looking! He really got a chuckle off that one. Laying the joke's aside I loved you mr.robert from the bottom of my heart .rest in peace my friend.

I have so many fond memories of Robert. He never met a stranger and always took time to encourage me and make me feel like I could take on the world and come out on top. I will never forget the kidness he always shown me.
