Francis Harlan Stringer

NOV 20, 1939 - APR 13, 2023

Francis Harlan Stringer, 83, died peacefully on April 13, 2023, at Piedmont Health Care Center. He was born November 20, 1939, in Monterey, TN, the son of Alexander and Henrietta Stringer.

Harlan had a long career in retail from Woolco, TG & Y and Wal-Mart. He retired from Wal-Mart in 2001. He met his wife Frances Neal while in college and living in Memphis, TN. They celebrated 60 years of marriage last June. He loved his family more than anything. He was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather and friend. He loved fishing and gardening. He loved the Lord and we have peace knowing he is healed and in Heaven. He resided in Jacksonville, AL (Williams Community) since 1983.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by brothers, A.J. Stringer and Harvey Stringer; sisters, Dorothy Vick, Linda Bryant, Nathaline Frazier and Wanda Redmon; and grandson, Matthew Reese. Surviving in addition to his wife, Frances Neal Stringer, are daughter, Jeanna (Mike) Reese; son, David Stringer; son, Michael (Sandra) Stringer; daughter, Susan (Bodie) Moore; grandchildren, Elizabeth (Kirk) George, Mallory Stringer, Morgan (Zach) Harris, Abigail Stringer, Caleb Stringer, Savannah Moore and Cheyenne Moore; great grandchild, Emmitt Harris; and brother, Harold Stringer.

A special thank you to all who took such great care of him this last year. We have been so blessed with great caregivers at Piedmont Health Care Center and Southern Care New Beacon.

The family will have a private memorial and ash spreading at a later date.

I will never forget the first time I met Harlan. I was working the Jacksonville Wal-Mart, it was his first day there. It was St. Patrick's day. I was going around with a green marker, putting a green mark on people who had not wore green that day. He had on a green shirt, and he laughed at the surprised look I had. He was a friend , and even after he retired, he did not forget those he had made friends with. Rest well Harlan. My prayers for the family.

I truly loved my Uncle Harlan. He bought me my first electric guitar and for that I will always be grateful. When he was young, he was one cool dude. He always reminded me of the actor Paul Newman. Family, I know what a loss this is for you and all of us that loved him so. I am praying for all of you and love you each and everyone.
