Gavin Kumar posted:

My papa was one of kind. He was always in high spirits and had such a gentle and contagious smile (as seen in the picture above). I remember being in the car with him and my grandma (Kay) and he would always be singing along to the radio and my grandmother would be tell him every time that he was singing terribly, it always made me laugh. I will take with me the amount of love and care he provided for my grandmother, his family and his friends. And all the memories we shared together.
