Julian "Keith" Shull

MAY 16, 1947 - OCT 12, 2023

In Loving Memory of Julian "Keith" Shull

Julian "Keith" Shull, 76, passed away on October 12th, 2023, in Anniston, Alabama. He was born on May 16th, 1947, in Knoxville, Tennessee, to Charles David Shull and Sarah Shull.

Keith is survived by his daughter, Kelly Sewell, and her husband Chad Sewell of Bossier City, LA, his son, Patrick Shull of Nashville, TN. as well as his four grandchildren Jessica, Justin, Logan, and Kyle.

Keith was preceded in death by his father Charles Shull, his mother Sarah Shull, and his brother David Shull.

A longtime resident of both Alpharetta, GA, and Anniston, AL. Keith touched the lives of those around him with his warmth and kindness. He was known for his talents as both a guitar player and a fisherman. His music brought joy to many, and his love for fishing created cherished memories with family and friends.

A memorial service to celebrate Keith's life will be held on 10:00 AM on December 9th, 2023, at the Memorial Chapel located at 733 White Plains Rd, Anniston, Alabama.

In addition to flowers, the family welcomes thoughtful gestures and remembrances in memory of Keith.

The family expresses their deepest gratitude for the support and condolences during this difficult time. Keith will be remembered for his love, laughter, and the lasting impact he had on the lives of those who were fortunate to know him. May he rest in peace.

The Shulls were our next door neighbors on Johnston Drive. We all played sports, but David and Keith were a year or three ahead of me. I had a Cushman motorscooter. Keith and I rode on it sometimes. Keith was a very good basketball player in high school. He was a really good guy. I am sorry for your loss. Bill Zinn

I remember when I was in high school, I went to hear the band a few times here in town. I was pleasantly surprised at how good they were! The music talent was very good, the singing, the songs , all of it sounded so good. Good memories for me.
