Raymond was a good guy. He worked with me at Alabama Contractors Equipment in Anniston. He loved the outdoors and working outside. He liked cutting and selling firewood. He always had a smile and loved to laugh. We had some good times. We recently reconnected on Facebook. He was "Raymond the Frenchman" He loved Auburn Football and had a picture of him and Pat Dye on his mantle. Raymond had a #1 sign . You will be missed Friend.

My dear cousin, So much more like a brother, though many miles separated us. I'm so thankful for our morning texts over coffee. I will miss you so much but I am confident that you are in Heaven. I'll never forget all the crazy fun we had with Tommy and John. And that time in our wilder days you took me to the Red Horse! What a hoot!! I'm planting a tree in your memory cuz. I love you. Cat.
