Sharon P. Anthony

FEB 6, 1955 - MAR 30, 2024

My loving mother, Sharon Phillips Anthony, passed away on March 30, 2024. She was 69 years old. Momma was the kindest, most loving, and most generous soul. She was well loved by her family and friends. She was a lifelong resident of Piedmont, AL, where she worked several jobs throughout her life.

Sharon was preceded in death by several, but most notably her mother, Monteen Phillips, from Piedmont, AL; (3) brothers: William Phillips from Piedmont, AL; Billy (Joann) Phillips of Cedartown, GA; and Jerry (Mary) Phillips of Piedmont; her niece Brenda Phillips of Piedmont, AL, with whom she shared a sisterly bond and her brother-in-law Harley Newton of Birmingham, AL, who was a father figure to her.

Sharon leaves behind a daughter, Sonya Anthony (Keith) Free of Centre, AL; her stepdaughter, Tashana Moore of Seneca, SC; and a stepson, Brenton Thompson (Destini) of Piedmont, AL. She also had six grandchildren, whom she completely adored: Kalista Free of Scottsboro, AL; Clay Vaughn of Seneca, SC; Kaylie Vaughn of Seneca, SC; Kaylor Free of Centre, AL; Raylynn Thompson of Centre, AL; and Jacksyn Thompson of Piedmont, AL. As well as her siblings: Sue (Wayne) Shaw of Hokes Bluff, AL; Catherine Newton of Piedmont, AL; Douglas Phillips (Linda) of Birmingham, AL; Martha (Jerry) Owens of Weaver, AL; and Mary Jo Phillips of Piedmont, AL.

Plus, she had many nieces and nephews, including Diane Rhinehart, with whom she shared a sisterly bond.

My momma will be missed terribly on Earth, but they are rejoicing in heaven. She will no longer be in pain or tears. She is lovingly embraced by her family and our loving God, Jesus.

I will never forget all the time we spent together. You were my sister, just with a different mother. My heart hurt so bad when I found out you were gone. I'm still hurting now. 😞😞😞
😞 I will love you forever. 😞😞
