Steven Jerome Parmer

FEB 27, 1956 - MAY 4, 2024

Steven Jerome Parmer, beloved husband, father, grandfather, and brother-in-law, passed away at Riverview Regional Medical Center in Gadsden, AL on May 4, 2024, at the age of 68. Born on February 27, 1956, in Talladega, Steven most recently resided in Piedmont.

Steven had a zest for life and found joy in simple pleasures. A true sci-fi enthusiast, Steven was a dedicated fan of both Star Trek and Star Wars. He also had a passion for sports, with Alabama being his favorite team. He was known for his musical talents, particularly playing the guitar, singing karaoke, and performing as the lead singer in his band. His love for music was evident in the countless hours he spent entertaining family and friends. Steven cherished his time spent with loved ones, always creating lasting memories. He also had a passion for Jesus and the Gospel.

Professionally, Steven excelled as an upholstery repair technician. He was the proud founder, with the help of his wife Rebecca, of A-1 Upholstery Repair in 1998, leaving a legacy in the industry.

Steven was a loving and devoted husband to his wife, Rebecca Champion Parmer, for almost 30 years. Their bond was strong, built on love and shared experiences.

In addition to his wife, Steven is survived by his children: Steven Jay Parmer (Nikki), Lesley Diane Archer, Misty Robin Crosson (Aaron), Lindsay Nicole Rose (Douglas), Steven Daniel Parmer (Cherish), and Chad Dustin Archer. He was a cherished grandfather to Cara, Landon, Emma, Dawson, Chase, Damien, Kiarra, Ava, Eli, Leonidaz, Aaliyah, Adelaide, Asa, and Levi. He is also survived by his uncle and mentor, Donald Haywood. Steven also leaves behind his brothers-in-law: Brad, Brian (Connie), and Benny (Jessica) Champion; cousins: Carol (Kenny) Newsome, Billy Haywood, Carlton (Deb) Tinker, Cindy Tinker, Beau (Amanda) Haywood, and Mande (Steve) Cotton; as well as extended family members: Tissy Butler, Tammy Medhus, Steven Clint Partain (Jess), and Tessa.
