Nikki Lynn Rosian

OCT 24, 1997 - SEP 29, 2025

Nikki Rosian, a fiercely loving daughter, sister, mother, wife, niece, aunt, granddaughter and friend, passed away on September 29, 2025, at the age of 27. Although her time on earth was far too brief, Nikki leaves behind a legacy defined by profound love, a beautiful voice, and a final, selfless act of generosity.

Born with a spirit as vibrant as her singing, Nikki was blessed with the voice of an angel. Whether performing for family or simply humming around the house, her music brought light and joy to all who heard it. She poured her heart into being a devoted mother to her four children: Gatlin Green, Griffin Green, Emmah Jackson, and Dextin Rosian.

Nikki was a cherished wife to Caleb Rosian. Beyond her family, she was a deeply loyal friend who loved her many special friends, including Deborah Mayben, with whom she shared a special and profound bond that was cherished by both.

She was preceded in death by her loving father, Kenny Basham , grandmothers Sarah Melba Geoghan and Kathy Day and her niece Ava Rosian.

Nikki is survived and forever cherished by her husband, Caleb Rosian; her four children: Gatlin Green, Griffin Green, Emmah Jackson, and Dextan Rosian; her mother, Gina DePeal (Patrick); her sisters, Ashley Sims (Josh), Kendra Basham (Zay), Ashley Halloran (Joey), Kerrah Basham, and Breanna Brown (Travis); and her brothers, Matthew Sims, Kenneth Basham Jr., and Blake Warren (Whitney). She is also lovingly remembered by her numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

In her final act, Nikki offered the gift of life to others as an organ donor. Her journey concluded with an Honor Walk, a beautiful and moving tribute to her incredible generosity and a testament to the lives she saved, allowing a part of her loving spirit to live on.
