Brandon was a devoted son and friend. He became the primary caretaker for his parents during their prolonged illnesses. Over the years, he also opened up his home to several family members and friends in need. He was always willing to help and will be deeply missed.

The grief he must have felt over losing two parents within a two-year span must have been unimaginable. However, he knew that in a short time, they'll hear their names called and will answer.

“ It is so consoling to see the beautiful tributes that so many have posted here. It affirms for me my reasons for missing him so. Brandon was a beautiful person. When I think of him now, so painfully, I miss him terribly. I find that, although he had physical maladies, as do we all, he is gone way too soon. There was so much to wish for. We know we will see him again, for the Scriptures assure us of that. As Job stated under inspiration, “You [Jehovah] will call, and I will answer you. You will long for the work of your hands.” That work of seeing His friends, and ours again, with the prospect of never having to deal with that imperfections that plague us.

Yes, I so look forward to seeing Brandon, Charlotte, Ralph, and the many more that we have lost to our greatest enemy.

It was so good to see the many that showed for his memorial service. I would venture to say that he would be pleased. But that’s the result of the effect that he had on us. We love him, we miss him, we long to see him again. Have faith my friends. We WILL see him again.

“ It's so consoling to see the tributes left here for Brandon. He was such a good person, and he left us way too soon. None of us really know of his suffering because he was such a private person. But he wasn't a hard person to love, and it didn't take much effort to get him to love you too. Brandon is missed. But we know that he will hear that call and "come out to a resurrection of life". (John 5:28, 29) So, we say, "See you soon Buddy!".

“ When I think of Brandon, I think of his sweet personality and loving heart. Remembering Brandon early on at the tender age of 5 years old with Ralph and Charlotte dressing him in the cutest outfits with the different suspenders and bow ties to the meeting :-). Even when he was little, he loved basketball!. I remember going over Charlotte and Ralph house and the first thing he wanted to do is play ball with us.

Later on in his adult years, he continuously displayed a loving and giving heart to his parents and others. The smile and warmth will truly be missed but not forgotten. As Brandon is only sleeping for only a short time and memories of Brandon will be here for a lifetime.
